Skipper at 11 a. m. The subject will be. "What is included in the Plan of Redemption." At 7 p. m., the subject will be: "The danger of Agnosticism."

Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Prayermeeting Tuesday at 7 p. m.
All are invited to attend.

Dowling Park Doings.

"What are you folks doing to cause people to talk about Dowling Park? I have heard of you in all most every county in the State and also in Georgia," was the question asked the writer a few days ago by a widely traveled friend. My reply was, come and see. Behold what a year and half of intelligent enterprise has done in supplementing the attractions of nature so lavishly expended on this ideal spot. On the west banks of the Suwannee a delightful hotel enshrined in a park of surpassing beauty, which includes the mineral springs, swimming pools and various auxiliaries for the amusement and pleasure of its guests has grown into popularity until all come who can, and all praise who come.

On the west banks of the river the immense mills, unsurpassed by any in the state, employing hundreds of skilled and unskilled workmen.
Numerous stores with stocks rivaling the best in the county, a fine railroad depot, trains about every hour, a business that draws the farmers from many miles around and a population ranging from eight hundred to one thousand, is what cause men to talk and come for business.

Among the day's arrivals may be mentioned: Mr. W. S. Lang, with W. B. Johnson Co., Jacksonville; Mr.
Turner, with C. B. Van Deman Co., Mr. Adair, with Kingan & Co., G. M.
Morris, with Tideman & Co., Savannah; S. J. Mayes, with J. D. Wade & Co., Savannah; Ben Ehrlich, with LeRoy Meyers & Co.; Mr. Haile the Globe Soap Co., man, Cincinnati. Mr.
McEachern, lumber buyer for Hirsch & Co.

T. H. the popular preacher, Rev. H. V.
Skipper, of Live Oak, with his friend Mr. Herring, of Brunswick.

The bell tower on the new church is nearing completion and the music of the bells will soon be floating on the Sabbath air.

Teams are busy hauling material for the county school and contractor Morris promises an early completion.

New dwellings and stores continue to be built, without any diminution of the demand for houses to rent.

Mr. R. L. Dowling has returned from an extended trip through the north and as usual full of business and vim.

PROGRESS.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo.
Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes:

TALLAHASSEE TOPICS, ETC

altogether a disreputable lookin object.

As he was returning to Tallahassee along a lonely road he saw a man ahead walking with a sack of corn meals slung on a stick over his shoulder. The man was a typical cracker named Powers. The Judge partly drunk called him to stop as they approached a creek that ran across the road. "Do you know who I am?" he demanded fiercely. "No sir, I don't know who you are" the country man answered. "Well I'm a brigand, a robber. (his appearance bore out the statement) and I want you to dance." "But I can't dance, I don't know how." "Well you've got to dance, if you don't I am going to blow your brains out." and he brandished a dangerous looking pistol. Down went the sack of meal and Powers began a grotesque performance, the best imitation he could command of fancy dancing.

"Now my good fellow," said this modern Robin Hood, "that will do, come and have a drink with me." He laid his pistol on the stump of a tree and took out his flask.

Powers snatched up the pistol, drew a bead on Judge Westcott and said "Now by Guinea, you dance some!" The judge expostulated, entreated and offered various bribes but his late victim was obdurate.
"Dance or I'll blow your brains out," and the judge danced. "Now wal-low" was the next command, and His Honor wallowed. "Now get up, I've good mind to blow your brains out any how—yours and your nigr-er's too.

Get in your carriage and go home, I'll keep this pistol to remember you by."

Governor Broward has authorized an exchange of circuits between Judge Francis B. B. Carter of the First Judicial Circuit, and Judge B.
H. Palmer, of Lake City, on account disqualifications in their circuit.

Judge Carter will hold court in Madison and Columbia counties, commencing October 15. Judge Palmer will hold court in Holmes county beginning October 15.

The State Board of Pardon, at the regular meeting Thursday granted a conditional pardon to Berry F.
Bird, who was convicted in 1901, and sentenced to twenty years in the State prison for the killing of Edgar J. Breck. A strong petition was presented to the board by Col. L. E.
Roberson. There being doubt as to there having been any intention on the part of Bird to take the life of Breck, and he having been of good behavior, a conditional pardon was granted him. The Board had previously commuted his sentence to ten years, five years of the original sentence having been served.

A conditional pardon was also granted to Ben Sneads, of Madison county, convicted of rape in 1901 and sentenced to life imprisonment.
The evidence submitted to the Board showed that had the case been appealed to the Supreme Court the verdict would probably have been reversed. The petition was presented to the Board by Charles E. Davis. In both cases the pardons were conditional.

The Board considered the case of R. P. Stuts, of Calhoun county, convicted of slandering a respectable woman and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 or serve twelve months in jail. The application was denied.

The case of Warren Walker, convicted before the County Judge of Leon county, of vagrancy, was considered and passed for further action.
